ATTENTION, READ CAREFULLY BEFORE BOOKING

Raritalia wants to provide customers with a fun and safe experience.

In order to participate in the excursion as a driver, it is essential to have experience in driving a scooter and to avoid being in a condition of inability to drive. Therefore, we invite you to keep the following in mind before booking the excursion:

The concession of use of the Vespa is subject to the fact that the driver must be familiar and have experience in driving a motorcycle. In the 30 minutes prior to departure, Raritalia will carry out a little test to verify that the participant has sufficient driving skills and is not in a clear state of inability to drive.

By booking the excursion, the customer declares to have experience in driving the scooter and agrees to undergo the test for the verification of his/her driving skills and ability to drive. If the verification test reveals an insufficient driving ability or a condition of inability to drive (at the sole discretion of our tour leader), Raritalia has the right to terminate the contract due to non-compliance with the commitments and contractual conditions by the Customer.

Cancellation will result in a penalty equal to 50% of the total price of the excursion. The remaining 50% will be refunded within two working days with the same method used by the Customer to make the payment.

In light of the above, we invite customers to book ONLY IF THEY HAVE EXPERIENCE IN DRIVING A SCOOTER (regardless possessing the qualifying titles).
